

Closing Prayer

Jesus hear our prayer.

We, like Peter, are often afraid of associating with you, not sure of what will follow.

We, like Judas, sometimes desire wealth or power over companionship with You.

We, like Your disciples in the garden, sometimes slumber instead of listening for your voice.

Jesus, we ask your forgiveness of the ways we continue to betray You. We give thanks and praise that You know us and love us still.

Here we are 2,000 years later, still desiring a deeper relationship with you. In your mercy, hear our prayers as we ask them in Your name.
