Advent Journey: Sanctified Art

This Advent, we are joining countless communities across the country in using resources from A Sanctified Art, a collective of artists, theologians, and ministers who weave together creativity and spiritual depth. Their work invites us to slow down, to pay attention, and to experience scripture through color, poetry, movement, and imagination. We'll be using their liturgy, art, and devotional materials to help us listen for God's presence in new ways, and to prepare room within ourselves for the Light that is always arriving.

All Church Retreat Sat, Dec 13:1-4

@ SJB, community room
Facilitated by Rachel Haxtema from our Pacific Northwest Conference. It will include a "Heart of Admiral Fair", to showcase the Teams and Committees that move Admiral forward.

Welcome Rev Allysa De Wolf

Rev. Allysa De Wolf is a hospice chaplain with Multicare and previously pastored UCC churches for over a decade. Allysa grew up in Southern California and was ordained in Newtown, Connecticut at Newtown Congregational Church. While in Newtown she helped the community during and after the Sandy Hook shooting. She helped start The Transgender Network while pastoring in Santa Barbara. During her time at Wayside UCC in Federal Way she established the rainbow door ministry, food pantry and strengthened connections with the local community. She has a passion for social justice and grassroots change. She is a graduate of NYU and Yale Divinity School. She has two young boys, an 110 lb dog, plays rugby and also sings in a feminist queer rock band with some mom friends. Rev Allysa's first Sunday will be November 30, as we open the Advent journey together. We are thankful she'll be here to support our community with pastoral care. You can reach her at AEDeWolf@gmail.com or (714) 404-2684.
